

NOT WITHOUT PASSION

During the months of February and March, our church is focusing on What's Next for us as a church. As part of that, we've been going through a series called Not Without. Our kids are learning alongside the adults, and we encourage you to continue the conversation at home about what your family is learning together.

Today's focus was Not Without Passion as we talked about the event of Palm Sunday.

Kids have had the opportunity to save money in an offering can and bring it back to give. We celebrated Commitment Sunday on March 15, but if your child didn't have the chance to participate, it's not too late! They can bring their offering any Sunday. All money collected between now and Easter will go toward our compassion project, Folsom's Hope.

On the back of this sheet, you'll find two discussion questions. We encourage you to talk through them together as a family.

Bonus: If your child brings this sheet back to church, they'll receive a prize!

If you have any questions, please reach out to donna.pepper@baysideonline.com

NOT WITHOUT PASSION

Why did the crowd shout “Hosanna” when Jesus entered Jerusalem, and what does that word mean? (read Matthew 21:1-11 for review)

What is one way you can show passion for Jesus this week at home or school?